BREAKFAST (Served all day cuz we don't know when your lazy butts get out of bed)

Prepared all day by a disillusioned KSU students shackled to the grills! If you're watching, they're not really complaining each time another order comes in, they're just chanting over and over, "We love our customers & thank you may I have another."

After 23 years, yes, yes & yes! You can now substitute, grits or tater tots for homefries. I guess with age we are getting easier, just kidding honey! But rules are still rules, Mon thru Friday grits will only be served till 11am & Sat & Sunday only till 2pm. Add American cheese to your grits for only .69 cents. Are we Country yet?

RULES OF DINING AT MIKE'S PLACE

1. Mike is always right. (Just don't ask his wife.)
2. Only Mike or Managers may refer to waitress staff as Serving Wenches. (They call us managers Studpuppets! Honest!)
3. Special orders DO UPSET US! (Our kitchen is staffed with enslaved former imperial storm troopers just waiting to start another food fight, I mean rebellion at your table.)
4. The Customer is NOT always right. (We will debate or refer to rule #1.)
5. Tips may be thrown at cooks - in appreciation or as an incentive to never cook again.
6. Yes, burping is allowed and appreciated. (Please, NO rolling your placemats into megaphones.)
7. Thou shalt control thy children or we will provide duct tape to assist you in the control process.
8. We will not split orders. If you're that cheap, split it yourself.
9. Tip your waitress (or waiter) - or else you'll find out why the catapult is aimed at Bob Evans.
10. Stop stealing our menus and we'll stop keying your cars.
11. Silverware is for eating with not for throwing at your waitress or waiter to get her attention. If you get bored, ask for crayons.
12. No making motorboat noises in your beer or pop.
13. We serve breakfast all day cause we don't know when your lazy butts gets out of bed.
14. We realize the ingredients are similar (water, grains and yeast), BUT you may not substitute beer for toast.
15. No jousting with steak knives in the aisles please. It really doesn't impress our serving wenches anyway. To best capture their attention, try throwing cash. (Tahiti time share options also work well.)
16. Please refrain from using "The Force" to remove items from our hallowed walls or levitating the X-Wing.
17. Please do not try to get a discount by claiming to be a friend of Mike's. (He doesn't have many.) If thy truly be a friend of He, you can answer these three questions, a) What was his name before he joined the Witness Relocation Program? b) How long was he on tour with the Michael Stanley Band? c) True or False: His AOL screen name is OB I Wanna be a Canoli? d) What was Mike's position in the Reagan administration?
18. Please flush the toilets - the kitchen needs the water.
19. Women, save us all time & while here at Mike's assume men are always right! But please don't enlighten Mike's wife to this new rule... some rules are better kept secret!!!!

When we have a line at the door we are busy & some meals take longer than a Big Mac to prepare. Mike's menu is extensive, complicated & filled with tiny print & hello, our cooks & Mike are getting older so cut them some slack. They are still Jedi's of the kitchen, & truly want you to enjoy your stay. Get up walk around, go to the bar for a adult beverage & just relax. Life goes to fast anyhow, sit back with your guest & enjoy your company & soon your feast will be upon you. Thank you for being one of our understanding guests. We look forward to serving you again.*

Best Wishes from Mike & his overly merry staff.
